

Jake Tyner

Manager and Associate Policy Counsel
Global Energy Institute

Jake Tyner is a manager and associate policy counsel at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's Global Energy Institute. Tyner focuses on environmental policy, specifically developing policy products, facilitating complex coalition and stakeholder consensus-building processes, and working to advance the interests of the business community at large with Congress, related regulatory agencies, and the executive branch.

Tyner previously worked in the Chamber's former Environment, Technology, and Regulatory Affairs Division as a policy associate. Before joining the Chamber, he worked in a number of capacities both on and off Capitol Hill, most recently as a legislative fellow for Rep. David Schweikert (R-AZ).

Originally from Baltimore, Maryland, Tyner holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics from Elon University and a Juris Doctor from the University of Baltimore School of Law.

The mission of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's Global Energy Institute is to unify policymakers, regulators, business leaders, and the American public behind a common sense energy strategy to help keep America secure, prosperous, and clean. Through policy development, education, and advocacy, the Institute is building support for meaningful action at the local, state, national, and international levels.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce is the world's largest business federation representing the interests of more than 3 million businesses of all sizes, sectors, and regions, as well as state and local chambers and industry associations.
