

AFFORDABLE ENERGY.

STRONG ECONOMY.

ENERGY SECURITY.

Natural gas delivers affordable and clean energy to thousands of communities across Washington state. From the cities encompassing the Puget Sound to the mountainous regions of eastern Washington, natural gas heats homes, powers businesses, and keeps energy costs low.

⚡ AFFORDABLE ENERGY

In 2020, Washington residential consumers saved MORE THAN 10% on natural gas compared to 2010

MORE THAN 30% of Washington households use natural gas to heat their homes

Natural gas is the SECOND LARGEST energy source for powering Washington's electricity generation

💰 STRONG ECONOMY

OVER 102,000 BUSINESSES in Washington rely on natural gas

Since 2010: Natural gas use by Washington businesses has GROWN 7%
Commercial natural gas prices have DECLINED 16%

The natural gas industry supports OVER 64,000 JOBS in the state

☁️ REDUCING EMISSIONS

Between 2009 and 2019, natural gas use in the electric industry increased by more than 30%. Over that period:

CO<sub>2</sub> emissions from conventional and combined-heat-and-power plants

DECLINED

24%

SO<sub>2</sub> emissions from conventional and combined-heat-and-power plants

DECLINED

78%

NO<sub>x</sub> emissions from conventional and combined-heat-and-power plants

DECLINED

44%